

Schedule of Events

Ok. What is a Pop-Up Consulate?

British Pop-Up Consulate [brit -ish pop-uhp kon-suh-lit] noun., A temporary diplomatic office designed to highlight what makes the UK a great place to visit and do business. This temporary office is opened in a city that does not already have a diplomatic presence, e.g. a consulate or embassy.

From March 3-7, the British government will open the doors to its first ever Pop-Up Consulate in Canada at the historic Citadel Hill in Halifax.

Pop up for a visit!

Don't be shy, we would love to meet you and explain how the British government works with Canada. We will be open Tuesday to Friday from 10:00am - 4:00pm.

Tuesday, March 4

Britain: Past, Present and Future. Free public tour of Halifax Citadel
11:00am and 1:00pm

Take a journey back in time and discover the many military connections between the UK and Halifax on display at Citadel Hill. This special free tour from the Halifax Citadel Regimental Association will only be offered this week. And did we mention it's free?

Science is GREAT at the Industrial Engineering Building (MA 120), Dalhousie University
2:00pm - 4:00pm

The ocean isn't just for swimming! Those ocean waves could someday power your house, and both Canada and the UK are playing a large role in making it happen. Join us for a special discussion as we take a closer look at this cutting edge field featuring experts from both sides of the Atlantic.

Open House for British Nationals – Pop-Up Consulate at Halifax Citadel
2:00pm - 5:00pm

Are you a Brit living in Atlantic Canada? Our consular team wants to meet with you. This open house is a great chance to get the latest information on the services we offer to British citizens living in Canada, including: emergency passports and help in a crisis.

Wednesday, March 5

Britain: Past, Present and Future. Free public tour of Halifax Citadel
11:00am and 1:00pm

Panel Discussion on Canada-UK Trade at University Hall, 3rd floor Macdonald Building, Dalhousie University
1:30pm - 3:00pm

Do you know what CETA stands for? If so, chances are this event is for you! Come and learn about the trade relationship between Canada and the UK, ask the experts your questions, and hear about new opportunities for businesses.

British Council Study in the UK Open House at Halifax Citadel
3:00pm - 6:00pm

Dreaming of studying in the UK? You aren't alone. Thousands of Canadians do it every year. Come and meet our friends from the British Council and representatives from St George's University of London, the University of the Arts London, the Liverpool Institute of Performing Arts and Northumbria University.

#UKinHfx

Connect with UKinCanada

Thursday, March 6

Britain: Past, Present and Future. Free public tour of Halifax Citadel
11:00am and 1:00pm

Royal Connections exhibit at the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia
5:00pm - 9:00pm

Fancy yourself a Royals watcher? Before glossy magazines, these prints, drawings, and sculpture helped connect monarchs with the masses. From Henry VII to George II, discover Nova Scotia's royal connections with a special behind the scenes visit directly from the exhibit's curator before it closes March 30. Tour begins at 7:00pm.

Live 105's British Re-invasion at the Lower Deck Historic Properties
8:00pm

Our main event. Perhaps you call it a maritime rock n' roll party...with a British twist! Together with the Lower Deck Historic Properties, Halifax Pop Explosion, and The Coast and supported by Cunard Lines, Live 105 is thrilled to bring together some of Nova Scotia's best musical talent to celebrate great British music and help local charities. Come down, grab a pint and cheer for your favourite band. It's going to be brilliant!

Friday, March 7

British film at Carbon Arc Cinema
7:00pm

Film fans know British cinema is among the world's best, and The Selfish Giant is no exception. We're thrilled to be partnering with The Carbon Arc, Halifax's only independent cinema, to screen this beautiful and heartfelt BAFTA-nominated fable.

BEST of BRITAIN

HALIFAX 2014