At approx 1950 hrs, property believed to belong to the deceased, Holly Bartlett, was found near the original scene under the MacKay Bridge. A white cane and a $5.00 bill was located.

The items were first discovered by [REDACTED]. They advised that they were friends of the Bartlett family and had been disturbed since the accident that Holly's cane had not been found. They explained that she always took it with her, and it would be unusual for Holly to be without it.

The [REDACTED] had come to the MacKay bridge to search the accident scene again where Holly had been injured. In doing so, they had located a $5.00 bill in some bushes near a path, and a short distance away, down an embankment, laying next to a chain-link fence, was the white cane.

The [REDACTED] contacted police and advised they did not disturb the evidence.

Cst Alex MacAdam attended and was shown where the found evidence was located. The scene was secured until Ident could attend to process.

Cst Alex MacAdam obtained statements from the [REDACTED]. As well, a statement was taken from a HD/Bridge Police officer, [REDACTED], who had come by the scene and advised that [REDACTED] also had checked the area last evening, except [REDACTED] did not locate anything when [REDACTED] had looked.

D/Cst JJ Wasson attended, seized the evidence, photographed and processed the scene.

The statements obtained were forwarded to D/Cst K. Robinson.
