ACCIDENT-NONTRAFFIC-FATAL

1 SUBSIDE OF ACCIDENT

CONCLUDING REMARKS:

{This investigation involved the accidental death of victim, Holly Elizabeth Bartlett (dob: 78-12-26). Ms. Bartlett was located on March 27/10, underneath the MacKay Bridge, after she had taken a fall from an embankment, sometime between the hours of 0010-0700.

The factors leading to Ms. Bartlett's fall were not immediately known, therefore an investigation was continued until all information (i.e. forensic, witness) was gathered.

Conclusion of investigation: Ms. Bartlett had consumed a significant amount of alcohol, which placed her in a state of intoxication. This intoxicated state caused Ms. Bartlett to have an initial fall just outside of her residence at 5572 North Ridge Road, and a subsequent fatal fall near the location of the MacKay Bridge.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] All evidence supported the conclusion that Ms. Bartlett's fall was accidental.

On 101117, at 0930 hours, D/Cst. Kim Robinson attended [REDACTED] apt. 110, to meet with Marion Bartlett, mother of Holly Bartlett. D/Cst. Robinson turned over the clothing of Ms. Bartlett, which had been seized for investigative purposes. D/Cst. Robinson advised Mrs. Bartlett that the file will be concluded at this time. Mrs. Bartlett thanked D/Cst. Robinson for police assistance with this matter.

No further police action is required. Request made for file closure.
